8	Erik	Lofstad	R	Yes	Yes	Yes	No	Yes	Yes	I've convinced many conservatives to change their minds about the war on drugs. I've convinced many liberals to change their mind about freedom of association and free speech.	My overall political philosophy is that our rights remain with the people and that the Constitution does not give us rights but merely is there to protect us. It's only as good as the people defending it- and this attitude alone makes me above and beyond 99% of current legislators.

9	Daniel L.	Medinger	D	Yes	Yes	Yes	NR	Yes	Yes	I am a first time candidate. However, in a previous career as a journalist, I was a strong advocate for civil rights and civil liberties in my editorial writing. I recognize how easy it is for people to be victims of discrimination and bias. I will continue that advocacy. Second, I have supported First Amendment rights groups to encourage free and open access to government information.	First, I will be open to collaborating with the ACLU to address issues of concern. A primary role of a state senator is to serve as a representative, one who holds government and others accountable. I will use the influence of the state senate office to advocate for and defend civil liberties. Second, I am very interested in sentencing and prison reform. We need to reduce the shockingly high rate of incarceration and provide assistance to ensure that recidivism rates are reduced.

15	Brian J.	Feldman	D	Yes	Yes	Yes	Yes	Yes	Yes	In recent years, I have supported and co-sponsored several key civil rights/civil liberties bills in Maryland, including Marriage Equality and Death Penalty Repeal legislation, as well as others.	As I have during my 12 years in the Maryland General Assembly, both in the House and the Senate, I will continue to support policies which promote civil rights and civil liberties in Maryland.
15	Robin	Ficker	R	Yes	Yes	Yes	Yes	Yes	Yes	4 times the ACLU has helped me overturn in court laws limiting 1st Amend rights. 2 times in Fed Court to allow Atty mailings to Defs. In Fed Court to allow paying petition gatherers. And to allow soliciting & signing in MNCPP parks. I like to fight 1st Amend limits!	I believe in robust discussion of issues. Was appointed 1st Gen Coun Nat Cau Black Aged by Rosa Parks! I make Sen J Raskin look passive on 1st Amend.
16	Hugh	Hill	D	Yes	No	Yes	No	Yes	Yes	As President of Mobile Medical Care, Montgomery County's largest and oldest network of clinics for the underserved, an organization for which I served 20 years as a volunteer physician, we advocated for being allowed to serve patients without documentation of address or citizenship and negotiated a conclusion with local government that we would not schedule regular follow-up appointments but could care for anyone with an immediate problem. This wasn't great, but at least we fought back	I would promote in-school alternatives to dismissal and suspensions, which are currently disproportionately levied on minorities. I have come out in favor of Assisted Outpatient Treatment so that the mentally ill can get help without having to be forcibly hospitalized or have their behavior criminalized

18	Dana	Beyer	D	Yes	Yes	Yes	Yes	Yes	Yes	Six years on Progressive Neighbors Steering Committee, including co-lead on the Transparency and Accountability Group that worked with Delegate Mizeur successfully in 2009-10. Lead campaigns for transgender equality in the state since 2004, and in Montgomery ('07-08), Howard ('11) Baltimore counties ('12) and Prince Georges ('14).	Ensure that our civil rights laws are properly implemented, and work to reduce income and wealth inequality which have the most profound impact on limiting civil liberties. Work to legalize marijuana and begin dismantling the prison-industrial complex with its disproportionate incarceration of minority populations. One specific bill is the Second Chance Act.

19	Roger	Manno	D	Yes	Yes	Yes	Yes	Yes	Yes	I continue to be a staunch supporter of equality for all Marylanders, including all LGBT Marylanders, women, racial and religious minorities, and new Americans. Among many efforts, I authored the Workplace Religious Freedom Act, for which I received the Adrian Theophilus Westney Religious Freedom Award" by the Adventist Columbia Union Conference. I am also the author of the Civil Rights Tax Relief Act, a new law creating parity in court awards between civil rights cases and other civil cases	Throughout my tenure in the Maryland House and Senate, I have worked to promote civil rights and civil liberties in all that I do. My work on the Senate Budget and Taxation Committee focuses on priorities that advance these priorities. I am particularly focused on addressing the unacceptable achievement gap, which I have publicly stated to be the most important social and economic justice issue of the next generation, and promoting universal employment - a right of all Marylanders.

20	Jamie	Raskin	D	Yes	Yes	Yes	Yes	Yes	Yes	Led the Senate floor fights for marriage equality, to repeal the death penalty, and to enact the state's medical marijuana program. Introduced and led the floor fight for the Freedom of Expression and Assembly Act to stop police spying on nonviolent political groups. Introduced many other civil rights and civil liberties laws.	I will fight for a state voting rights act and for legislation to prevent government drone surveillance of individuals without a search warrant.

I worked closely with the ACLU and other civil rights organizations. My work at the federal level impacted these issues in Maryland and around the country. I have continued to provide pro bono advocacy counsel on criminal justice, free speech, religious freedom and privacy issues.	I will introduce legislation to significantly alter Maryland's FOIA law. It is impossible to hold a government accountable when the government acts in secret. I will also introduce legislation to eliminate mandatory minimum sentences in Maryland.

I advocated for my Muslim students to pray as they wished.	I would advocate for the transgender community and I would strongly advocate for African American males who are non violent but serving unreasonably long prison sentences.

The prevents gentrification and maintains affordability of housing perpetually.	As Senator, I will work to reform our immigration policies. As a former Justice Department official, I worked in the Office of Immigration Litigation. I would also introduce and implement a Homeowner's Protection Act with a provision that noone could lose their home over water bills.
42	Jim	Brochin	D	Yes	No	Yes	Yes	No	Yes	In 2013, I sponsored SB 182 to prohibit the MTA from recording audio on buses. In 2014, I supported the Fairness for All Marylanders Act, which provided protection from discrimination based on gender identity.	Support the prohibition of drones spying on citizens and legislation to create transparency and accountability within government and all of its agencies.

42	Connie	DeJulius	D	Yes	No	Yes	Yes	Yes	Yes	In my limited scope of influence, I have been a strong advocate for Marriage Equality and the Dream Act. I fervently believe that every person, regardless of their place or condition in life has an absolute right to justice and equality...to be treated with dignity and respect.	I will sponsor legislation prohibiting source of income discrimination effective state-wide, including each county, municipality, and city. I am disturbed to learn the problems associated with PIA requests. PIA reform will be a major part of my legislative agenda; for which I will seek help and guidance.

43	Bill	Henry	D	Yes	Yes	Yes	Yes	Yes	Yes	I introduced and helped pass the first local resolution adopted by the Baltimore City Council, endorsing state legislation expanding the freedom to marry to same-sex couples in Maryland. I also supported amendments to restrict an anti-soliciting bill so as to have a less-sweeping reach.	I will be supportive of more transparent government operations and I will be supportive of protecting our privacy from government overreach.
43	Joan Carter	Conway	D	Yes	Yes	Yes	Yes	Yes	Yes	One examples is my support of Historically Black Institution and the need to ensure there is an elimination of duplicative programs by traditionally white institutions. Another example of my advocacy to promote and protect the civil rights of immigrants via my amendment to and passage of the Dream Act. Additionally, I supported and advocated for the elimination of the Death penalty in Maryland.	I will continue to promote and protect the civil rights and civil liberties of Maryland residents by advocating for the expungement of criminal records of nonviolent juvenile offenders. Additionally, I will continue to advocate for affirmative action programs in the state of Maryland and will adamantly oppose the elimination of this criterion in higher education admission.
